

Welcome

The Sisters of Saint Joseph of Rochester invite you to experience the welcome and warmth of our Motherhouse, to enjoy the beautiful accommodations of this home, the surrounding grounds, and the hospitality of our resident sisters and priests, and staff.

Take time for yourself or gather with others in peace and tranquility.

The Sisters of Saint Joseph Motherhouse is conveniently located in Pittsford, NY, close to Nazareth College and St. Bernard's School of Theology.

Mission Statement of the Motherhouse Community

Rooted in the SSJ charism of love of God and neighbor, we strive to create a life together that is expressed in prayerfulness, joy, gratitude, shared responsibility, caring, and hospitality which continually give life to one another and the "dear neighbor."

Space and Grounds

You are welcome to consider our Motherhouse as a place for individual reflection and renewal as well as for group retreats, gatherings and meetings.

- Holy Family Chapel accommodates 150 people; we have a weekday liturgy at 11:30 am
- Our main Conference Room holds 40 people, or can be divided for two smaller groups.
- A hall and foyer allow space for welcoming, registration, and displays.
- Our Dining Room, when not in use by residents, accommodates 120 people.
- Adjacent to the Dining Room, the Great Room accommodates 75 people.
- An outdoor courtyard is available for seasonal dining and reflection.

Our smoke-free, handicap-accessible building and walking path provide stunning views of ponds and fields.

Services

We provide refreshments for meetings: beverages, snacks, and baked goods as needed. For groups, we will negotiate arrangements for meals, either prepared by our staff or brought in from the outside according to numbers and needs.

Overnight Accommodations

At times, we have one to five private bedrooms, with handicap-accessible bathrooms, available for guests.
