

Sister Genevieve Turner

Sister Genevieve Turner found herself involved with many different ministries through the years. In 2017 during the celebration of her 70th anniversary as a Sister of Saint Joseph, she reflected, “In each ministry, I have felt I was doing the will of God and I was where God wanted me to be. I have also felt a great sense of accomplishment in my ministries – it is all rooted in my vow of obedience and the will of God.”

Sister entered the Congregation from Holy Spirit parish in Buffalo. She taught elementary education for 18 and a half years at St. Casimir in Elmira, St. John the Evangelist in Spencerport, Our Lady of Perpetual Help in Rochester, St. Mary’s in Elmira, St. Paul in Oswego, St Stephen in Geneva, and St. Patrick in Mt. Morris.

“Teaching was challenging. I was very young when I started. I was very happy teaching and being with the children. I have loved all of my assignments,” she said.

After teaching, she was involved with Motherhouse transportation, and other Congregational services.
