

Sister Concepta Vay – 70 Years

“A call to be a Sister of Saint Joseph challenges me to be a sign of Christ’s healing presence and love among all God’s people wherever I serve,” says Sister Concepta. In her 70 years as a woman religious, Sister has found a special calling in education. “My greatest joy has been teaching young children to love God and to do their best for Him.”

Sister has taught at St. Ambrose, Holy Apostles, Sacred Heart, St. Lawrence and Nazareth Hall in Rochester, NY; St. Jerome in East Rochester and Sacred Heart in Auburn, NY. For 18 years, Sister Concepta spent summers in Alabama, teaching at the Fathers of St. Edmund mission in Pine Apple. “A prayer rises each morning in my heart for God’s blessings on all the thousands of children in my life,” she concludes.
