

Sister Sharon Bailey (formerly Sister Regina Marie) – 60 Years

Sister Sharon (formerly Sister Regina Marie) reflects on her life as a Sister of Saint Joseph, thinking of her favorite song How can I keep from singing. “The words of the refrain reflect my deep gratitude for God’s continuous unconditional love and presence to me over all these years,” says Sister.

*“No storm can shake my inmost soul,
While to that rock I’m clinging.
Since love is Lord of heaven and earth
How can I keep from singing?”*

Sister has had the joy through her ministries in the healthcare field to encounter many kinds of people in many different settings. She has had the opportunity to work one-on-one with countless individuals and has felt God’s presence in these encounters and felt the mutual recognition of the sacredness of the moment over and over.

Currently, Sister Sharon is a Director for the SSJ Associates program. “I feel privileged to accompany these good women and men as they seek to deepen their relationship with God and serve others.

“To all that has been, Thanks for all that is and will be, Yes!”
