

Sister Jacqueline Stephens – 60 Years

“Being in love with God is the thread that has woven and continues to weave the pattern of my life,” says Sister Jacqueline. Sister currently works as part of a team meeting the needs of the Sisters and priests residing at the Sisters of Saint Joseph Motherhouse.

“As I reflect on these past 60 years what has become deeply evident to me is God’s unconditional love permeating all of creation,” she says. “In the midst of the terrible events happening in our world today, I remember a part of our mission statement: We are empowered by God for our service through prayer, life in community and the people among whom we minister. All of us together make the difference.”
