

Sister Grace Noël Gleichauf

Sister Grace Noël Gleichauf spent much of her time as a Sister of Saint Joseph in the classroom.

“I taught young children in Catholic elementary schools for 17 years,” said Sister Grace Noël on the occasion of her 75th Jubilee in 2020.

Sister taught at St. Anthony of Padua, Corpus Christi, St. Stephen, and St. Bridget before temporarily switching ministry work

“My next assignment was St. Joseph’s Villa where I worked in purchasing and as a cottage relief mother,” she said. “Following this, I was on the staff of our Prayer Center while having the privilege of being a Eucharistic minister at Highland Hospital.”

Sister Grace Noël then returned to education, teaching religion at Immaculate Conception School in Ithaca, NY. In 1998, she became the Sacristan at the Sisters of Saint Joseph Motherhouse and since 2010 worked in a variety of Congregational Services.

While reflecting on her Jubilee celebration, Sister said, “All my days have been filled with blessings and graces, and for this I am most grateful.”
